

DBA8700 : The Business Congress & Leadership Engagement

Students engage in a Global Business Congress, a unique forum for presenting the best and most promising business practices. Each student presents their doctoral unique project and its impact including the response to a socially responsible challenge. Engaging, fact-based written and verbal communication as well as demonstrated leadership will be expected in these presentations. Feedback from peers and faculty will inform the designs and the proposed outcomes.

Credits 6