

MAT102 : Liberal Arts Mathematics

An introduction to mathematical and problem-solving skills. Students will make connections between mathematics, business, and the society in which we live. Topics include set theory and logic, mathematical modeling, probability and statistical methods, and consumer mathematics.

Credits 3