

BUS401 : Corporate Finance

Financial decision making in corporations. Topics include credit procedures, financial operation, transaction financing, corporate venture, corporate resources of funding, capital budgeting, capital structure, financial risk management, dividend guidelines and corporate conditional claims, and international finance, and the financial procedures for corporate financial decision-making in terms of short-term and long-term considerations.

Credits 3