

BUS407 : Performance Measurement

An exploration of financial responsibility within an organization. Students will examine financial and nonfinancial performance measures, budgeting, evaluation techniques and styles, financial incentive structure, strategy implementation and execution, and corporate governance.

Credits 3